The Burdell Murder.

It will be seen by last night's telegraph report, that evidence was adduced before the Coroner's Inquest yesterday, which points more directly to ECKEL, as the murderer, than any yet offered. Unless there be some mistake as to the identification, it is difficult to resist the belief, founded on this testimony, that ECKEL was present at and participated in the murder of Dr. BURDELL.

THE RAIL ROADS.—All the Rail Roads in our State are making their regular trips again, having sustained but little damage from the storm. Those in Illinois have not been so fortunate, and most of the lines, leading out of Chicago, are still more or less interrupted.

M. & M. Railroad—Eighth Annual Report.

Yesterday being the day for the election of Directors of the Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R. Company, for the ensuing year, the Eighth Annual Report of the Directors, together with the Reports of the Treasurer, Secretary and Superintendent, were laid before the Stockholders, who assembled, in large numbers, at the Freight Depot of the Company. The Report of the Directors is a brief and business-like document.—Having discussed, very fully, in previous reports, the financial condition, policy, prospects and connections of their road, the Directors confine themselves, in the present document, to the operations of the Company during the past year. General success has attended their operations; all of the Company's engagements have been met at maturity, and of the 172,061 passengers transported over the road, during the year, not one has received the slightest injury. This single fact speaks volumes for the vigilant supervision and careful running of the road. The Directors speak confidently and with great satisfaction of the completion of the road to the Mississippi, at Prairie du Chien, in season for the opening of Spring Navigation; and they with reason anticipate a vast increase in business, from the trade and travel of Iowa, Minnesota and North-Western Wisconsin, which must then take this route. To be ready for this business, the Company have made arrangements with the Prairie du Chien and St. Paul Steam Packet Company, for two daily lines, each way, of first-class steamers, to ply between Prairie du Chien and St. Paul, in connection with the morning and evening passenger trains over the road. These boats will be superior to anything yet seen on the Upper Mississippi, and this route must speedily become the favorite one for all travel between Lake Michigan and the thriving towns which thickly dot the shores of the Upper Mississippi.

The financial condition of the Company is sound and satisfactory. The total amount of stock paid in, is $2,975,019; the funded debt payable at different periods, from 1861 to 1886, is $3,350,000; the total amount expended, to December 31, 1856, was $6,152,016; total estimated cost of whole line (including Southern Wisconsin road to Monroe) is $8,582,310—making an average cost per mile $24,689. This, the Directors say, is less than any Railroad in the West has cost, and much less than the cost per mile of Eastern roads.

The gross earnings for the year were $680,472, and the operating expenses $307,781, or about 45 per cent. Two dividends, of five per cent each, have been declared during the year, one payable on the 9th of July and the other on the 2d of February. Deducting from the net earnings, the interest, dividends and deposite of $50,000 for Sinking Fund, and there remains a surplus of $39,884, which the Directors have wisely set apart for relaying portions of the track.

The Sinking Fund is in good condition. For the $107,008 which the Company have deposited with the U. S. Trust Company, N. Y., they have purchased 122 of the Company' bonds, amounting to $122,000. It is upon the operation of the Sinking Fund that the Company rely for the gradual and ultimate liquidation of their entire funded debt.

A good account is given of the progress of the Southern Wisconsin Road. That road is now under contract and nearly graded from Janesville to Monroe, 33 miles. The Galena people have agreed to build from Warren to a point on the main line of the Southern Wisconsin road, 13 miles west of Monroe. Favorable terms have been made for running connections, at Warren, with the Illinois Central road to Galena and Dunleith. By the construction of these 46 miles, therefore, Milwaukee will be brought within 150 miles of Galena, or 21 miles nearer than Chicago is, with the additional advantage, at this end of the route, of being 90 miles nearer Buffalo. This arrangement is independent of the extension of the main line of the Southern Wisconsin road, from the point where the Galena branch diverges, as an independent road, to Dubuque. West of the Mississippi, the connections of the M. and M. R. R., will be with the McGregor, St. Peters & Missouri R. R., extending directly west from Prairie du Chien, across the State of Iowa, and with the various roads radiating from Dubuque. These tributaries cannot fail to swell the traffic over the M. & M. R. R. to an enormous amount.

The Report concludes with an intimation from the President, JOHN CATLIN, that the impaired state of his health and the necessity of attending to his own affairs demand the relinquishment of the office which he has held these four years past and the duties of which he discharged with signal fidelity. Appended to the Directors' Report are those of the Superintendent, Secretary and Treasurer. The main facts are embodied in the report first named. We give, however, a few details.

The equipment of the road now consists of 18 Passenger Cars (and 20 were to be delivered on the 1st of May) 4 Baggage Cars (ten more under contract) 401 covered, 100 platform, 40 gravel, and 26 hand cars, and 45 locomotives (11 of these to be delivered May 1st.)

The aggregate of freight moved westward during the year was 90,861 tons, and that moved eastward 63,216 do. Among the leading articles shipped eastward were 1,514,921 bushels of wheat, 81,788 do. corn, 68,056 do. oats, 43,561 do. barley, 30,326 bbls of flour, nearly three million pounds of pork, &c.

There was shipped westward 28,863,678 feet of lumber, 28,940,891 lbs merchandize, 6,923,202 lbs coal, 20,043 bbls salt and 655,662 brick, besides numerous other articles. Among the operating expenses of the road for the year (the aggregate being $350,368) the principle items are—fuel, $106,931; repairs of locomotives, 48,082; do of road, $38,948; do cars, $29,886; station services, $58,685; oil and waste, $10,460. The number of way passengers during the year was 135,155, and of through passengers, 36,906. The amount received from passengers was $227,609, and from freight $441,635.

We cannot close our review of this Annual Report without a brief reference to the Superintendent of the road. The result, given elsewhere, of the election held yesterday for Directors, is substantially an endorsement of that officer. Every member of the old Board (save two who declined a re-election) received a unanimous vote. Mr. BRODHEAD is a man of a quick and impulsive nature and may sometimes say, or do things which his cooler judgment would not approve.

But it is impossible to deny his administrative ability, his scrupulous integrity, his indomitable perseverance and his untiring and unselfish devotion to the interests of the Company. These qualities, as rare as they are valuable in a Rail Road Superintendent, are combined in a remarkable degree in Mr. BRODHEAD; and while he may have occasionally made enemies, or estranged friends, by his sometimes abrupt manner, all must admit that he has done his duty faithfully and well, and that to him more than to any other one man must be attributed the steady progress and successful completion of our Pioneer road to the Waters of the Mississippi.

Twenty-two Years in the West—The Milwaukee of 1834 and 1856.

A perusal of the Board of Trade Report for January, 1857, furnishes facts and figures for one of the most remarkable illustrations of the growth of the West.

The Milwaukee of 1834 was the trading cabin of SOLOMON JUNEAU, standing on the banks of the river, just where the Sentinel office now stands—this, and this only, constituted the Milwaukee of that day. No more people—no more houses—no stores—no warehouses—no mills—no churches—no schoolhouses—no docks—no harbor—no bridges—no shipping—no manufactures—no railroads.

Now, in 1857, see what less than a quarter of a century has brought about!

Where the modest Indian trading house stood, rises a splendid five story brick block.

Forty-five thousand people, at least, inhabit the corporate limits of the city, which SOLOMON JUNEAU lived to see.

Not less than twelve hundred buildings were erected in the city in 1856 alone, many of them splendid and costly stores, at a cost of about three millions of dollars.

Capacious warehouses line the rivers which form the inner harbor.

A row of flouring mills of great capacity stand together in one part of the city, able to turn out over 200,000 barrels of flour annually.

More than forty churches assemble their congregations to worship God.

More than $200,000 has been invested in public free schools, beside the many private academies.

At least four miles of substantial docks line the rivers.

One of the best harbors on the whole line of the lakes has been made by expending in all some $200,000 in improving the natural advantages of the location.

Eight bridges, costing from $5,000 to $12,000 each, span the rivers.

Seventy-two vessels, with an aggregate of 16,369 tons, constitute the Milwaukee fleet, and the aggregate tonnage arrived and departed, was over two million tons.

The value of the principal articles manufactured in 1855 was over eight millions of dollars.

Seven railroads, in various stages of progress, and of which nearly five hundred miles are in operation, radiate from Milwaukee to reach points west and north, from Savanna on the Mississippi to Ontonagon on Lake Superior, passing through and reaching into fertile lands, occupied even now by not less than 1,250,000 people.

The amount of the wholesale trade for 1856 was about seventeen millions of dollars.

The banking capital is now $1,300,000, comprised in seven banks—this not including numerous bankers and brokers.

The total value of imports by lake last year was about $28,000,000.

The total value of exports by lake was $20,274,000.

Such is the Milwaukee of January, 1857—of 22 years growth. Just beginning to feel the influence of the railroads, which, in great part by her means and credit, are reaching forth to the rich country in the interior, whose resources are being developed with wonderful rapidity, Milwaukee has every encouragement for the future. Let us make a mark here, and see what the next five years will do for us.

The Senatorial Question.

Speaker Littlejohn, of New York, who presides over the body representing the largest population in the Union, with one exception, is a gentleman well versed in legislative usages, and well posted in constitutional knowledge, although he is a republican. The Sentinel says that he did not make the same decision that Lieut-Gov. McArthur did, but made one agreeing with that of Speaker Spooner.

We do not think it likely that Speaker Spooner has yet made any decision. Indeed we think it too early by some months to look for one from him, but the decision of Littlejohn was exactly in accordance with that of Lieut-Gov. McArthur. Both decided the votes for the man excluded by the Constitution to be void, as the Constitution in both States declared them to be. There was no appeal, for the democrats knowing they could elect no man, only meant, in throwing away their votes, to pay a compliment to Mr. Sickles. —News, of yesterday.

The News deliberately misstates the facts, in regard to the decision of Mr. Speaker LITTLEJOHN, as it needs must, to make out a case for Lt. Gov. MCARTHUR. Mr. LITTLEJOHN, who is, as the News says, "a gentlemen well versed in legislative usages, and well posted in Constitutional knowledge," expressed the opinion that the votes, cast by the Democratic minority in the N. Y. Legislature for Mr. SICKLES, as United States Senator, were "void" under the State Constitution, but added that he, as presiding officer, had no authority to reject them. Our Wisconsin Speaker, Mr. SPOONER, made precisely the same decision, on the day and at the time of Judge DOOLITTLE's election, though the "slow coach" of the News does not yet appear to have heard of it. The two Speakers were of accord, in this matter, as well as the Lt. Governor of New York. We have the authority of these three gentlemen, therefore, against Lt. Gov. MCARTHUR.

The News says "there was no appeal" for Mr. Speaker LITTLEJOHN's decision. Very true, for the reason that his decision—to receive the votes cast for Mr. SICKLES—was indisputably right. But there was an appeal from Lt. Gov. MCARTHUR'S decision, and that decision promptly overruled by a vote of two to one. Whereupon the Lt. Governor, who had just before expressly admitted the right of the Convention to review his decision, refused to recognize the vote by which, on appeal, that decision had been reversed!

JUDGE POTTER'S APPOINTMENT AS REVISOR.—The News of yesterday objects to the appointment of Judge POTTER, as one of "the three Commissioners to prepare the code," (the News doubtless means to revise the Statutes) because he was a Member of the Legislature which passed the act providing for this Commission, and the Constitution says that "no member of the legislature shall be appointed or elected to any civil office in the State, which shall have been created or the emoluments of which shall have been increased during the term for which he was elected."

The objection is well taken, and we do not doubt that, their attention being called to the matter, Gov. BASHFORD will either recall the appointment, or Judge POTTER resign it.

The News improves the occasion to villify the Republican press, for silently acquiescing in this appointment, after denouncing Gov. BARSTOW for a similar "outrage," in the appointment of Mr. VITTUM as a Lunatic Asylum Commissioner.—We do not doubt that the Republican press will say, as we have said, that the appointment thus made—doubtless through inadvertence—ought to be revoked. On the other hand it is significant to remark that not one of the BARSTOW organs ever objected to, or condemned any of Gov. BARSTOW's repeated and notorious infractions of the Constitution, and that their tender solicitude and fervent zeal for that instrument date from the period of Gov. BASHFORD's administration. But "better late than never."

THEATRE BURNED.—The National Theatre at Washington was destroyed by fire on the afternoon of Friday last. Only the bare walls remained.

FROM MADISON.

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, Feb. 9.

Several important bills were introduced in the Senate this morning; and, contrary to the usual custom, the leading measures have thus far had their origin in that body this session. Considering the number of such bills which have yet to be acted upon by the Assembly, there is good ground for apprehension that the session may not close on the 23d. Both Houses are working industriously, however. Among the bills in the Senate were the following:

By Mr. Bean, providing penalties against fraudulent issues of stock certificates.

By Mr. Barber, to prevent trespasses on the Swamp Lands.

By Mr. Greulich,—one to amend the charter of the Milwaukee Hydraulic Co., and another to amend the law authorizing the city to aid in the construction of water-works. (The first bill adds to the capital stock of the Company, and adds the names of several leading citizens as corporators, and is understood to be the result of an earnest movement to push forward at once this necessary public improvement.)

By Mr. Wheeler, to facilitate the collection of rents.

By Mr. Sholes, an amended charter for Kenosha.

Mr. Barber's Election Law was under consideration as the special order in the afternoon, and was discussed at considerable length, various amendments being proposed. The democrats seem to rally, for some reason, against the provision which is intended to prevent the locomotive voting of railroad operatives, of which we had some samples last November. I think, however, that the large majority are disposed to sustain such stringent provisions as will put a stop to those frauds and all others if possible.

ANOTHER COUNTY SEAT QUESTION.

In Assembly, Mr. Rood presented a petition from 783 citizens of Portage Co. asking for the removal of the County Seat. I understand that Mr. Rood favors the project, while Mr. Hanchett in the Senate, opposes it, so that there is a chance for a very pretty legislative quarrel.

You have, doubtless, a full abstract of the business done in Assembly in the morning. I note some of the particulars. Has nobody in the State ever heard of the DIVISION OF WASHINGTON CO.?

Presuming that some of our readers have heard of it, it is only necessary to say that Mr. Fagan gave notice this morning of a bill to re-unite Washington and Ozaukee Counties. The probabilities of its passage are not brilliant.

PENS AND PILLS ENOUGH!

A resolution to purchase a supply of the Protean Fountain Pens at $4 each, which had been introduced at the request of the agent, was killed, 24 to 48, eighteen of the minority being democrats. In the course of a few remarks against the passage of the resolution, Dr. Cameron suggested that the Assembly had already its regular supply of "pills," meaning "peas," to the great admiration of members generally.

WAUPACCA COMES UP AGAIN.

A resolution that B. F. Phillips is not entitled to his seat, which has been on the table some days, came up in order, and there was a general disposition to finish it, but as Mr. Phillips requested another day in which to consider a communication made to him by the Republicans in Caucus, the subject went over for a day. It is understood that a way out of the maze into which the majority has been led either has been found, or will be found, by to-morrow.

Some eight or ten bills were taken up in their proper order and passed, when the hour of 11 o'clock arriving, the special order,

THE LAKE SUPERIOR DISTRICT CONTESTED SEAT

Was taken up. Now, note that the Assembly, the other day, mad at itself and all the world for the botheration connected with the Waupaca County Seat question, refused to vote that the law of '53, requiring notice of intention to contest a seat, &c., was a good, just, and economical rule of action. This was not because they did not think it a good rule, but because they were provoked at the manœuvres by which they had been led around so crazily for several days by members of the Committee on elections, for whom Messrs. M. Strong and Noggle managed.—Note also that the majority of that committee reported in favor of Mr. Markland's right to the seat now occupied by Mr. G. Strong, the latter having the legal certificate, and the former not having given notice of his intention to contest. Now see how, after a little consultation among the Republican members, they having satisfied themselves, by perusing the majority report, and the minority report of Mr. Noggle, as to the facts in the case,

THE ENGINEER WAS HOISTED WITH HIS OWN PETARD!

The Committee's resolution was, that Mr. Markland was entitled to the seat. Mr. Cameron offered a substitute, to the effect that the law of '53 is a good, just and economical rule of action, and that Mr. Markland not having complied with that rule, and not established his right to a seat, his application for it be rejected; and on this Mr. Cameron moved

THE PREVIOUS QUESTION.

And this, to the disgust of many who had hoped for a good time generally, prevailed, by 39 to 31, and the main question was ordered, 36 to 28. Whereupon followed these proceedings in quick succession.

The first of the divisions of Dr. Cameron's amendment (that the law of '53 is a good rule &c) was carried without a division.

The second division, that Markland is not entitled, was carried by ayes 44, noes 29.

And then the resolution, so amended, was adopted, by about the same vote, Moses M. Strong voting aye, with the intention of moving a re-consideration, and, it is reasonable to suppose, giving us a speech on the subject. But Mr. Hastings was too quick for him, and moved the reconsideration, and asked for the previous question!

Then Mr. Strong moved a call of the House, and, pending the call, asked leave to talk a little while on the subject. No objection was made, and he proceeded some five minutes, when proceedings under the call were, on his motion, suspended, the previous question sustained, 44 to 28, and the re-consideration refused, 28 to 46: —and so ended the matter.

Twenty-five bills were passed during the morning session, and the House adjourned to 2½ P. M.

THE CODE.

After a business session in Committee of the Whole in the afternoon, Mr. Strong moved for further time for the Judiciary Committee to consider the code. This was opposed by Mr. Mills in an animated speech, but time was granted, to Monday next. W. H. W.

CURLING MATCH IN WISCONSIN.—A Curling Match was played on the Wisconsin River, near Dekorra, between the towns of Dekorra and Caledonia, on the 2d inst. It was closely contested, but resulted in favor of Dekorra; that town coming out five shots ahead. Why do not some of the sons of Scotia, in this city, give us a specimen of this manly winter sport on our river? They could not easily find a better spot for it. Who will start the ball?

A FURLOUGH—WE TRUST NOT FOR LIFE.—A letter from Washington informs us that on Monday before last, the Honorable JOSHUA GIDDINGS left that city for his home in Ohio—perhaps never to return to the scene of his labors and his fame, the Representatives' floor of the Federal Legislature. Twice within a year has Disease suddenly stricken down this aged captain of Freedom, with his harness on his back. A furlough is necessary for him.

There will follow him into his rest the gratitude of all in the nation who love truly Republican institutions, and who admire faithful and courageous Representation of a constituency. Honest, fearless, able, influential, and laborious, Ohio can ill spare her veteran Congressman, and can hardly fill his place.—Albany Journal, Feb. 6.

For the Sentinel.

A Wolf at the Capitol.

The Journal prints, as an item of news,
With a flourish the marvel extolling,
That around the Capitol's sacred purlieus,
Attracted by scents of Madison stews,
A famishing wolf is prowling.

To me the marvel's no marvel at all,
(Though a wolf is a subject of loathing)
These "varmints," for years both great and small,
Have burrow'd in holes in the Capitol wall—
Real wolves, though "wolves in sheeps' clothing."

It seems whenever the grub grows scarce
In the vaults of the people's grausr;
Though cowards, their hunger makes them fierce,
And passengers' legs they gnash and pierce,
As they practice their wolfish venery.

Some fear that the vermin, impelled by want,
Will into the country wander,
And with feathery tread the farm yard haunt;
And snap up, to sate their hunger gaunt,
Some favorite goose, or gander.

But if Wolfy does look a little thin,
His appetite merely he's nursing;
If his phiz looks ghastly, it's only his grin
At the prospect of clutching a share o' the tin
That Euchre will soon be disbursing.

For the people's taxes will soon be there,
And then at the vaults you'll find him,
Waging with orders intestine war,
Gnashing at lock, and bolt, and bar,
And snapping before and behind him.

OWEN GLENDOWER.

MILWAUKEE, Feb 10, 1857.

The Late State Treasurer.

The letter of our associate at Madison, in yesterday's paper, made mention of the petition presented to the Legislature by ex-Speaker HORN, in behalf of his friend, countryman and constituent, Mr. EDWARD H. JANSSEN, late Treasurer of this State. Mr. JANSSEN, as our readers doubtless remember, is a defaulter to the amount of some $35,000, or more, and suits are now pending, against himself and sureties, to recover this sum. The petition tells Mr. JANSSEN's story of the deficit and indirectly accuses his colleagues in the late Democratic State Administration and the clerks and assistants in his own office, of complicity, or connivance, in "robbing the Exchequer." We publish the document as we find it in the Madison Patriot:

To the Honorable, the Legislature of the State of Wisconsin:

The petition of Edward H. Janssen, late Treasurer of this State, respectfully submits that he is still indebted to the State in the sum mentioned in the report of the State Treasurer, and that he is unable to satisfy the same. Your petitioner further showeth that he entered upon the discharge of his duties as State Treasurer in the month of January, 1852, that he was re-elected in the fall of 1853, and that he went out of office in the fore part of January, 1856.

Your petitioner is unable to state the causes of the deficit in the Treasury, but believes them to be carelessness in book-keeping, and dishonesty or criminal neglect of those who had access to the vault, besides himself. Your petitioner further states that while not only the law made it incumbent upon him to appoint assistants, he was still more compelled so to do by necessity, in order to discharge the complicated duties of the office, through whose hands the funds pass in and out of the Treasury.

Finding no plan can be devised to make these assistants responsible for any deficit, unless they were caught in the very act of purloining the funds, or allowing others so to do, and therefore the State Treasurer has to trust in a great measure to the honesty of his assistants, especially when he is unable to attend to the duties of the office for any length of time himself. Your petitioner further sheweth, that by the will of an inscrutable Providence, death in the most horrid form visited his family during the prevalence of the cholera, when he lost his brother, father-in-law, and three of his dearly beloved children —while his wife lay at the point of death, and has continued in poor health ever since. Sometime preceding this, one of his children was burned to death in the conflagration of his dwelling-house. These successive calamities have worked upon the mind of your petitioner—in such a manner, that he was for some time unable to attend to any business, or even to care about it. And that he was consequently frequently absent from Madison during the last two years of his term of office, and when in Madison bodily, was with his mind and thoughts at home among the few loved ones that were yet spared him.

Your petitioner belives that the causes of the defalcation occurred during the last two years of his term, and that he verily believes that during his absence as aforesaid, the statute making it the duty of the Secretary of State and Governor to investigate the vouchers of the Treasury at the end of every quarter has seldom, if ever, been complied with, otherwise the deficit must have been sooner discovered, and could not have so largely accumulated. But your petitioner, relying not only upon the honesty and capability of his assistants, was certainly of the opinion that the duties of the other officers as aforesaid, would be strictly executed, otherwise your petitioner would sooner have resigned his office when he found that the but partially was able to attend to the duties himself for any length of time.

Your petitioner begs leave to assure the Hon., the Legislature, that not one cent of the missing funds have been appropriated to his own use, or through him to the use of any person or persons; that he has not squandered any money, nor has he been guilty of gambling or speculating, and that at the close of his term of office he was not worth more than at the beginning, except by a sum of money received by him and his deceased brother from their father in Germany.

Your petitioner respectfully states, that he has no more property than is necessary to keep his family above want, and to educate his remaining children; and that, if this Legislature should not interfere, the ruin of himself and family will be the consequence.

Your petitioner therefore respectfully prays that your honorable body will pass a law for his relief—and will ever pray, &c.

EDWARD H. JANSSEN.

Feb. 6th, 1857.

☞ A driving snow storm from the north-east came down upon us yesterday morning, and continued until the afternoon, when it changed to hail, which fell in great quantities until night set in, when by way of variety it turned into a pouring rain, which continued pretty much all night long, freezing as it fell, and covering trees and buildings and all out doors with a mantle of ice. The weight of ice accumulated on fruit and shade trees about town, had caused much damage. There are indications of a general break up which it is feared will result in injury to the lumbering interests, by compelling the logging companies now in the woods, to bring their operations to a permanent close.—Oshkosh Courier, Feb. 7.

The rain here, it seems, was snow at the north and if it fell as fast as the rain did, must have added a foot, or so, to the present deecy covering of Northern Wisconsin. Our streams and springs ought to be full this year.

HEAVY VERDICT.—The Galveston News says that the important suit brought by the State of Texas against the firm of R. & D. MILLS, was decided in the District Court at Galveston, on the 14th ult, the jury bringing in a verdict of guilty, and assessing the penalty at $100,000. It appears that the suit was bought by the State to recover penalties from the defendants for having, in violation of the law of Texas, issued drafts to circulate as money in the state.

HANGING AND MARRIAGE.—In Orleans county, New York, recently, a young man who had been rejected by a young lady to whom he paid attentions for some time, and to whom he made elegant presents, went to the barn and hung himself. The despairing lover was cut down before life was extinct, and in order to hasten his restoration, the before reluctant lady consented to marry, and named the happy day.

JACK FROST TURNED ABOLITIONIST.—The Cincinnati Gazette of the 6th instant says:

The recent freeze-up of the river has afforded unequalled facilities to negroes disposed to migrate to a more northern clime. Six "Chattles" belonging to one family, set out from Covington to Canada a few nights since, and numerous other stampedes have taken place along the line of the river. Many persons sent their negroes to the interior for safe keeping. We fear our Southern neighbors will soon be voting the Ohio river a nuisance, and pass resolutions of indignation against Dame Nature for aiding and abetting the Abolitionists.

A FAIR EXCHANGE.—The following paragraphs appear, in juxtaposition, in the telegraph columns of some of our eastern and southern exchanges:

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.

The steamer Alps arrived to-day, with dates from Havre to Saturday, the 24th. She brings $225,000 in specie.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.

The steamship Arago sailed at noon to-day for Havre. She takes out $250,000 in specie.

Detroit and Milwaukee Railway.

The Grand Rapids Enquirer says that the Railroad men of the Detroit & Milwaukee Railway, are not by any means idle. The deep cut through the point of the hill near Taylor's Cold Brook Mills, is nearly completed, the two gangs on each side of the hill being now separated by about 20 feet of earth.

We have noticed a large force of men upon the ice above the upper Steamboat landing, for several days; and on inquiry, were told that they are engaged in laying down the heavy stone piers which are to support the railroad bridge over the river at that place. Unless the ice breaks up earlier than usual, which now affords them every facility for prosecuting their work, the piers will be nearly or quite completed before the winter is over. The bridge is to be of great length, as it crosses the river in a slanting direction; and is to be built in a most substantial manner. The piers are quite close together, and when the superstructure is completed, the bridge will be a magnificent looking affair.—Quite a number of ties and sleepers for the superstructure of the road, have already been prepared and scattered along the track. "Look out for the Engine when the bell rings!"

Newspaper Publishing.

In allusion to the recent stoppage of a daily journal in Utica, N. Y., the Albany Argus remarks:

"The experiment of the last ten years has proved pretty conclusively that it costs something to publish a good daily paper, and cured, we think, the mania for starting new dailies in moderate sized towns. We had better have fewer papers, and longer and better ones. It takes a pretty respectable sized fortune to set up and carry on successfully a daily paper of the first class."

ABOUT "THE WOLF."—There is a manifest skepticism about town respecting the account which we published Saturday of the wolf that was ravening through our streets before daybreak that morning. We have now no doubt but it was a genuine wolf and no ignoble city cur, or "Oriental wolf," as some have supposed, escaped from the custody of the Grand Seignior. The concurrent testimony of several credible witnesses, to say nothing of the secondary evidence of sundry gentlemen, experienced in such matters, who have examined the tracks, all go to establish the fact. The skeptical ought to meet the animal some night, and witness his glaring eye-balls, and pinched sides, and bushy tail, and blood-thirsty mouth, and hear the "Thick, carnivorous passion in his throat"

when the "critter" howls. The veriest Thomas could not hold out against such a demonstration.

It is supposed to be the same wolf that cut up Capt. Markland's messenger with supplemental election returns from La Pointe, early in the winter, upon which he intended to base his claims to the seat of Hon. George Strong of the Assembly. The wolf, having no use for the returns, is probably prowling about with them, intending to deposit them in the Secretary of State's office at the earliest opportunity. Let him howl. —Madison Journal.

LONG ISLAND SOUND FROZEN OVER.—For the first time, there is solid ice from the Connecticut shore to Long Island. Persons cross the Sound to Long Island on the ice, from Port Chester, Westchester county, N. Y., and also from Throggs Neck, near Fort Schuyler. The harbor at New Haven was frozen at night as Baffin's Bay. An unusual circumstance" is mentioned by the New Haven Register. That paper of Monday evening, says that "Captain Morrow, of the schooner Daniel Trowbridge, who has been for a week frozen in near Southwest Ledge, at the mouth of our harbor, reports that nothing but ice can be seen from his topmast with a spy glass: that from Faulkner's Island across to Long Island, and from this former to the Connecticut shore, up to Branford, is a solid field of ice. At ebb tide a large gap opens at the mouth of our harbor, closing again at flood tide. Thus Long Island and Connecticut are, for the first time in the memory of man, connected by solid ice."—New Haven Palladium.

A LONG VOYAGE.—The propeller Mary Stewart, Capt. Woodworth, left Windsor at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and arrived here yesterday morning, at half-past 10, having been, on account of the ice, over eighteen hours in making the trip, which is usually made in five minutes, or less. Some twenty persons, some of whom, it is said, got on board of her in order to save paying the usual fare on the regular ferry, were obliged to remain with her in the ice during all that time. As they had come on board without the Captain's invitation, they had to put up with just such accommodations and fare as circumstances would admit of. They had a delightful night of it, as there were no more beds on board than were necessary for the officers and crew of the vessel.—Detroit Free Press, Feb. 5.

☞ Milwaukee has decided to build her long projected Air Line Railroad to Fond du Lac with all possible dispatch. This will be an advantage to the Lake Winnebago and Wolf River region. Milwaukee will find, however, that an Air Line Road to Appleton and hence to Wolf River, will be, as a permanent investment, the most profitable Railroad enterprise in which her capitalists can embark.

Wake up, Milwaukeeans, and examine the matter!—Appleton Crescent.

A NEW BREAK.—The Racine Daily Journal tells the following good story:

We were much amused the other day at the remark made by a German in our hearing, in regard to the new move of taking Spanish coin at the reduced valuation. He had quite a number of quarters in his possession, and tendered them in payment for some goods he had purchased, when the shop-keeper informed him that they were worth only twenty cents. Upon asking the reason and being informed, he said: "I keep dese because I know der bank bill git broke, sometime, and now by d——n der silver breaks too! Vat ish good money?"

EQUIVOCAL COMPLIMENT.—A Paris correspondent, mentioning the recent decease of a notable French gentleman, M. de Salvandy, says:

"On his death bed, and when he could no longer speak, he asked his wife to hand him a slate, when he wrote and handed to her, Sixty years of existence—thirty-two years in happiness. Brown says that in order to know whether this was meant for a compliment to his connubiality or his celibacy, the letter should have told us whether the gentleman was married at twenty-eight, or thirty-two?—Boston Post.

MILWAUKEE & MISSISSIPPI R. R.—ANNUAL ELECTION.—The Annual Election for Directors of the M. & M. Rail Road, came off in our city yesterday. There was a very large attendance of the country Stockholders and a full representation of Eastern interests. The following ticket received 20,654 votes, being all that were cast:

1. John Catlin, New York.
2. E. D. Holton, Milwaukee.
3. John C. Wright, Schenectady.
4. E. B. Wolcott, Milwaukee.
5. George H. Walker, Milwaukee.
6. E. D. Clinton, Waukesha.
7. A. E. Ray, Eagle.
8. A Finch, Jr., Milwaukee.
9. H. L. Dousman, Prairie du Chien.
10. Joseph Goodrich, Milton.
11. E. W. Pelton, Prairie du Chien
19. Anson Eldred, Milwaukee.
13. Hans Crocker, do.
14. Nelson Dewey, Cassville.
15. E. L. Dimock, Janesville.
16. Brooks Dunwiddie, Monroe.
17. P. J. Tibbets, Madison.

The following changes from last year's Board are made: JOHN C. WRIGHT, Ex-Comptroller of New York, in place of S. H. ALDEN, resigned, and E. W. PELTON, of Prairie du Chien, in place of S. C. HALL, resigned. Immediately after the election the new Board met and adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.

An abundant and palatable collation, prepared by EX-RAY, was served up, during the day, at the Company's Freight House, and had ample justice done to it by the Stockholders and other invited guests.

John B. Gough.

We believe that Mr. GOUGH does not propose to speak again in the West after fulfilling his appointments in this city for Thursday and Friday evenings of this week, as immediate engagements take him East, and as he expects soon to leave for England, we shall not soon again hear the "matchless orator" of the West. We therefore advise all of our country friends who wish to hear him—as who does not?—and with whom it is possible, to come in on Thursday, or Friday of this week.

To our city readers we are requested to say that for Mr. GOUGH'S evenings the new and beautiful Hall of "the Albany" will be furnished with the seats that belong to the hall, and that no one need stay away for fear of not getting a comfortable seat.

THE MASQUERADE TO-NIGHT.—The Masquerade for the benefit of the German and English Academy, given under the auspices of the Ladies' Society, comes off at "the Albany" this evening. The Hall will be arranged for the convenience both of actors and spectators.—A space will be partioned off at the east end, where the Ladies of the Society will have refreshments prepared; and the vacant store on the left of the main entrance will be fitted up for a similar purpose. A number of Masques, Fancy Dances, &c., will be performed, and among the latter there will be two, by a large troop of children, dressed and instructed for the occasion. Those who wish to see all of the performances, should be at the Hall as early as half past 8 o'clock.

ENGLISH AND FRENCH BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL.—We took occasion, some days since, to recommend very strongly to our readers the English and French Boarding and Day School of Madame SEIBERT, on Van Buren street, between Mason and Oneida. We have since heard a rumor that Madame SEIBERT had some thoughts of giving up her school, in the spring, and returning to New York. This, we are authorised to say, is an entire mistake. So far from entertaining any such idea, Madame SEIBERT proposes to enlarge and improve the advantages and accommodations which her school now offers, confidently relying upon an intelligent and appreciating patronage to repay her efforts and outlay.

In this connection, and as confirmatory of what we have said, in praise of Madame SEIBERT'S admirable school, we take leave to publish the following brief note from Governor TALLMADGE:

FOND DU LAC, February 3d, 1857.

I am well acquainted with Madame SEIBERT and her Seminary for young ladies at Milwaukee, having had a daughter under her instruction since the commencement of her school. I take great pleasure in recommending her to all who have daughters to educate, knowing that with proper patronage her school may be made to equal any at the East. Such a school can be made an honor to Milwaukee and to the State of Wisconsin, and should not be suffered to languish for want of proper encouragement. N. P. TALLMADGE.

We heartily concur in the opinion thus expressed by Gov. TALLMADGE and confidently assure those of our readers who are so fortunate as to have young daughters, that they cannot entrust their education to better hands than to those of Madame SEIBERT.

MILWAUKEE COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.—We have, at different times, called attention to this promising institution, and a day or two since, at the request of Messrs. BAYLISS & LINCOLN, passed a half hour very pleasantly, in a visit to the College. We found the large room quite filled with lads and young men, from 14 to 25 years of age, all busily engaged in studying the theory and practice of Book-Keeping and in learning to write well. Mr. BAYLISS explained to us, at some length, the method of instruction and the course of practice, pursued in the College, and we saw the fruits in the neatness, accuracy and dispatch with which most of the pupils did their work. About 50 students are now in attendance, and upwards of 60, having finished the course there, have obtained situations in this city and elsewhere and are daily experiencing the value of the practical instruction received at the College. The institution, we are glad to learn, is now on a permanent footing and its merits entitle it to the confidence and patronage of our business public.

LAST NIGHT OF THE ETHIOPIAN MINSTRELS.—The Ethiopian Minstrels will give their third and last performance at Young's Hall this evening. A large audience was present last night, although the weather was extremely cold. Their music, singing, and rendering of negro character surpass any thing we have seen in this city. In addition to the usual negro ditties, witticisms, &c., their dances are capital. The performances of negro character, &c., at the close of the evening, are alone worth the price of admission. Their programme for this evening is an unusually amusing one, and a rare treat is offered.

GRAND MASQUERADE BALL TO-NIGHT!—Milwaukee holds a Carnival, to-night, at the new Hall in "the Albany." The Grand Masquerade Ball, given by the Ladies Society, in aid of the German and English Academy, is the attraction of the evening. From the number of masques, fancy dances, rich and various costumes in preparation, we anticipate a most successful and amusing affair. Excellent music will be provided and good order enforced.

ANTHER CANAL TO LAKE HURON.—At a meeting of the Hamilton Board of Trade, on Monday week, it was resolved that a survey should be made at the expense of the Board, with the view of deciding on the practicability of constructing a ship canal from the head of Lake Ontario to the waters of Lake Huron.

The spirit of competition to secure the lion's share of the present and future great trade of the West is active. Like the trade of the Indies, it enriches the State that carries and exchanges it.

DIVISION OF THE SIXTH WARD.—A bill is before the Legislature to divide the Sixth and organize the Ninth Ward of our city. A meeting of citizens of the Sixth Ward, to consider the matter, is called at Schmeis's Saloon, Johannisberg, this (Wednesday) evening, at half-past 7 o'clock. General attendance is requested.

GOOD SNAP.—The snow flurry of Monday night was short-lived. By 10 o clock, the clouds had dispersed and the temperature became freezing. At sunrise, yesterday, the mercury had fallen to 19 degrees below zero, and the cold was penetrating throughout the day.

PUTNAM FOR FEBRUARY.—We are indebted to to Mr. W. MILLS for a copy of their best of the New York Monthlies. Those of our readers who want to take such a periodical can be supplied, at their residences, by Mr. ELLIS, and in subscribing for Putnam may rest assured that they will get their money's worth.

SITUATION WANTED.—The young man who advertises in our columns for a situation as Book-Keeper is amply qualified for the post, and possesses an excellent character.

VESSEL SALE AT MANITOWOC.—The Tribune states that Messrs. VAN VALKENBURGH & Co., of Manitowoc, have sold their fine Schooner, the S Bates, for $9,500, being a good advance on the cost.

REAL ESTATE SALES YESTERDAY.—Mr. J. S. BILLINGS, Land and Collecting Agent, No. 248 E. Water st reports the following registered sales of Real Estate:

SALOM'S MERCANTILE COLLEGE!

A Perpetual Ticket for $25!

GENTLEMEN desirous of acquiring a thorough Mercantile Education, are assured that the advantages presented at this institution are unsurpassed.

The Principal takes this opportunity to acknowledge the courtesy of several of the most distinguished Shipping and Jobbing Houses in the East, who recently allowed him to examine their books, besides explaining many original plans for economizing labor, which, adopted as in some instances after the experience of half a century, may be justly designated the ne plus ultra of the art.

These advantages, granted upon Mr. SALOM'S long practical experience in a variety of Counting Houses, have enabled him to elaborate a novel and valuable series of transactions, introducing all the great heads and ramifications of mercantile routine to be actually developed by each of the student. A perpetual ticket confers the privilege of instruction in Book-Keeping at all times, as well as tuition in Writing, Mercantile Calculations, Law, Correspondence Forms, &c.

The Surveying and Mathematical department is in progress during the day and evening.

LESSONS IN Foreign Languages.

MR. AND MRS. L. S. H. DE CRETY, from Paris, for four years past Instructors in Foreign Languages in Milwaukee, have the honor to inform the public that they will form classes in the French, Italian and Spanish Languages on the 1st of September next. The course of instruction will be according to the age and intelligence of the pupils, and the classes kept entirely separate, their house being arranged with that view.

Gentlemen and ladies who desire to speak either of these languages, can receive lessons in Reading and Conversation, Mr. DE CRETY furnishing books of the best French authors. Those too wishing to learn vocal music in either of those languages, will find a competent music teacher in the establishment.

The hours of instruction will be from 8 to 11 o'clock A. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M. And in the evening from half past 6 to 9 for conversation.

DE CRETY will also give lessons in French, Spanish and Italian, at his office, to gentlemen only, from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening, as also lessons in Fencing, the use of the Sword, and all military exercises. Persons of delicate constitution and feeble temperament, as also those confined to their offices and engaged in sedentary pursuits, will derive from these exercises, improvement in their health, acquire strength in their limbs and find an agreeable recreation.

Mr. De Crety will also form similar classes for children from 10 to 15 years old, at his house, or office, as parents may prefer. Fathers and mothers who desire to see their children strong, active and robust, can judge for themselves, after a few weeks trial, as to the effect of these different exercises upon their health.

The continued patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

To MERCHANTS.—Mr. DE CRETY will take charge of French correspondence to all the principal cities of France and will procure all Price Currents that they may want.
